Dear Drin:

25X1 Attached hereto is self-explanatory memorandum from [redacted] relative to a mixup on our London to Washington circuit.

I do not believe that any action is indicated except that all of your personnel should understand that while we are paying a considerable sum for this circuit, it is still an Army circuit and I prefer to have complaints handled through the Washington office. We are now and have in the past received a tremendous amount of service from the Army communications network without reimbursement, and where complaints are in order, one must of necessity proceed with measured diplomacy.

Please give this your attention, and I am sure that we shall not have any difficulty.

Sincerely,

L. K. White
